

Spring Weddings Fairfield County Style

"I Do!"

*If you're planning
a spring wedding,
make sure to invite Mother Nature*

BY STEPHANIE H. DAHL

Spring is wedding season, and here in Fairfield County, Mother Nature does her part to provide the perfect settings for romance. Sweet flowers will bloom and the annual ritual of spring birdfall has will be underway so couples have everything they need to enhance their perfect day.

"Every bride dreams of the perfect wedding," says Bloomer member Gabe Goldbach, Luth, former editor-in-chief of Urban. "This magazine and some of the wedding industry connections." "The difference is that in Fairfield County, where there are so many spectacular venues and where there is such a broad range of wedding resources available, couples are much more likely to meet their own individual style, thereby achieving the dream of the perfect wedding for them."

PHOTO BY STACEY P. MORGAN